

DIABETES across the LIFECOURSE: Northern Australia partnership

“COMMUNITY LEADING THE WAY: ENGAGING & GUIDING RESEARCH”.

DIABETES across the LIFECOURSE: Northern Australia Partnership 2021 Virtual Annual Educational Symposium Program – Friday 10th September 2021 8:30am to 13:00pm (ACST)

Program – Session 1		Co-design with Community
Chairs:	Dr Christine Connors – Executive Director Population &amp; Primary Health Care, Top End Regional Health Service
8:00am – Darwin Only	Registration, including tea and coffee
8:30am – online session starts	Official Opening and Welcome to Country		Prof Alan Cass & Trent ‘Bandirrik’ Lee
8:45am	The Kahnawake School Diabetes Prevention Program (KSDPP) – an enduring community-university partnership enhancing capacity for Indigenous Health research	A/Prof Treena Delormier, Montreal, Canada
9:30am	Designing Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Physical Activity Programs	Dr Karla Canuto, SAHMRI Adelaide, SA
10:00am	Communities informing and guiding diabetes prevention	Dr Renae Kirkham
10:10am	Lived experiences of being an Aboriginal Health Practitioner	Ms. Eyvette Hawthorne
10:25am	Panel – discussion and feedback: Karla Canuto, Renae Kirkham, Eyvette Hawthorne
10:45am	Morning Tea / Networking
Program – Session 2		Community Guiding Research
Chairs:	Prof Louise Maple-Brown – Head of Diabetes across the Lifecourse: Northern Australia Partnership
11:15am	DIABETES across the LIFECOURSE: Northern Australia Partnership Recent Key Findings	Dr Anna Wood
11:35am	Communities informing and guiding diabetes in pregnancy	Ms. Sian Graham
11:55am	A Clinical Perspective of supporting Women with their Mental Health	Ms. Denella Hampton
12:10pm	Diabetes, Hearts and Minds	Prof Alex Brown, SAHMRI Adelaide
12:40pm	Panel – Discussion and feedback: Anna Wood, Sian Graham, Denella Hampton, Alex Brown
1:00pm	Close		